The congregation let out a gasp, came to immediate attention, and the dozing deacon in the back row dropped his hymn book. Then the preacher said, "It was my mother." The congregation tittered a little and managed to follow along as the sermon concluded.

Sermon humor, jokes by JavaCasa

A Very Long And Boring Sermon After a very long and boring sermon the parishioners filed out of the church saying nothing to the preacher. Towards the end of the line was a thoughtful person who always commented on the sermons."Pastor, today your sermon reminded me of the peace and love of God." The pastor was thrilled.

Some of them deal with humor—a little, not much—but as far as I've been able to tell, none answer the great question of the hour that is bugging the h-k out of a large number of preachers on this Friday morning, two days before the moment of truth: Should I or should I not tell that joke when I get up to preach? It's a great joke.
