The Ballad Of Baby Doe

The Ballad of Baby Doe. The Ballad of Baby Doe is an opera by the American composer Douglas Moore that uses an English-language libretto by John Latouche. It is Moore's most famous opera and one of the few American operas to be in the standard repertoire. Especially famous are the title heroine's five arias: "Letter Aria," "Willow Song," "I Knew..."

The Ballad of Baby Doe - Wikipedia

Douglas Moore's opera The Ballad of Baby Doe is built on a true story, and the story has apparently become something of a legend in Colorado. Given its nature it is rather unsurprising that someone finally realized it as an opera, and the result - with John Latouche as a librettist - is a remarkable success.

A great discovery. With the exceptions of Baby Doe's Willow Song and Horace's Warm as the Autumn Light, seeing this production on Youtube was the first time seeing Douglas Moore's Ballad of Baby Doe in full. While not one of my favourite operas, it's one of the finest from America, the music is sublime and the story's emotionally resonant.
